

Poison Control -1-800-222-1222

Nation Suicide Hotline – 1-800-784-2433 (24/7)

Deaf Suicide Hotline – 1-800-799-4TTY (4889)

Haven House

–only Sandoval County shelter; open to 25 women and children

–only Domestic Violence agency serving Sandoval County

–works to empower survivors of abuse to lead independent and safe lifestyles through victim advocacy, assistance with orders of protection, shelter, support groups and counseling for women and children emergency

–1-800-526-7157 (24/7 DV hotline)

–www.havenhouseinc.org

Los Alamos Family Council

–Los Alamos Community Mental Health Center, advocacy, prevention, counseling. No charge for PTSD vets.

–24/7 Crisis Line (505)662-4422 or 877-602-4060

www.lafamilycouncil.com

–Crisis Center of Northern New Mexico (Los Alamos, White Rock, Espanola)

–Safe shelter

–24 hour, 7 days per week, crisis hotline

–Emergency transportation, Education, assistance, legal advocacy, girl empowerment program

–1-800-206-1656

Joy Junction

–a shelter providing both emergency and longer-term food, shelter, clothing and transportation to shelter and other social services. Shelters 300 people daily. In Albuquerque

–Open 24/7 for crisis intervention including free transportation to shelter

–1-800-924-0569

–www.joyjunction.org

A New Day, Youth and Family Services

–a shelter and crisis intervention facility for youth, ages 11-17, who have been abused, neglected, exploited or are runaways. In Albuquerque –provides emergency services and diverse programs to more than 300 youth every year

–treatment services for behavioral and mental health issues

–1-866-875-7233

–www.ndnm.org/programs/shelter.php

AGORA

–one of the oldest crisis centers in nation. In Albuquerque

–trained peer counselors (listen and give options/referrals to services and agencies in NM)

–1-866-HELP-1-NM

–www.agoracares.org

OMI

–Office of the Medical Investigator

–grief services and support groups 505-925-9501

MADD

–victim services in English and Spanish: 1-877-MADD HELP (24/7; during day time hours get national line)

–victim services offer: referral to Crime Victim Compensation, possible local, state and federal financial aid, referral to agencies that provide professional counseling and legal representation, victim/survivor support groups